99. SIS and Gustov deny plaintiffs are entitled to any of the relief requested in the Complaint.

100. Any allegation in the Complaint that is not expressly admitted herein is denied.

First Affirmative Defense

The Complaint fails to state a claim on which relief can be granted against SIS and Gustov for the factual and legal reasons stated in this Answer.

Second Affirmative Defense

The claims and related damages alleged in the Complaint are barred, in whole or in part, by the statute of limitations.

Third Affirmative Defense

The claims alleged in the Complaint are barred against SIS and Gustov to the extent they did not employ plaintiffs.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

Plaintiffs are barred from pursuing the claims alleged in the Complaint as a class or collective action because they were subject to different conditions of employment and are not similarly situated to each other or the class they seek to represent.

Fifth Affirmative Defense

Plaintiffs are inadequate purported representatives of some or all of the alleged individuals that they purport to represent.

Sixth Affirmative Defense

The types of claims alleged by Plaintiffs on behalf of themselves and the group of individuals which they purport to represent are matters in which individual questions predominate and, accordingly, are not appropriate for collective treatment.

Seventh Affirmative Defense

Some or all of the claims asserted in the Complaint are barred because a collective action is not superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy.

Eighth Affirmative Defense

The claims alleged in the Complaint are barred against SIS and Gustov because any related actions they took were done in good faith with a reasonable ground for believing such conduct did not violate applicable law.

Ninth Affirmative Defense

The claims alleged in the Complaint are barred against SIS and Gustov as to all hours purportedly worked of which they lacked actual or constructive knowledge.

Tenth Affirmative Defense

The claims alleged in the Complaint are barred against SIS and Gustov to the extent the time periods for which plaintiffs claim entitlement to overtime pay fall within the de minimis exception.

Eleventh Affirmative Defense

The claims alleged in the Complaint for unpaid overtime are barred against SIS and Gustov to the extent plaintiffs were exempt under the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”) and Maryland Wage and Hour Law (“MWHL”) because of the nature of their employment or their related compensation structure.

Twelfth Affirmative Defense

The claims alleged in the Complaint are barred against SIS and Gustov to the extent they are based on purported violations of the FLSA, MWHL, or Maryland Wage Payment and Collection Law by defendants other than them.

Thirteenth Affirmative Defense

Plaintiffs’ claims have failed to mitigate any damages that they may have suffered in this case.

Fourteenth Affirmative Defense

SIS and Gustov expressly reserve the right to raise and assert additional affirmative defenses as they become known.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered, SIS and Gustov respectfully request that the Complaint be dismissed with prejudice, they be awarded their attorneys' fees and costs, and such other relief as this Court may deem appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,
